"It would wake the Devil."

That was the remark of a customer to whom we were showing one of our new nickel alarm clocks.

Here is a handy little timer and reminder for a small price.

Needed in the sleeping room—the sick room—the school room—up stairs, down stairs, all around the house.

Not the cheap, flimsy, timeless sort, but a good substantial time and alarm clock combined.

The Road to Success.

We have just received from the Burlington Passenger Department a very useful leaflet describing the wonderful resources, as a mixed farming and dairying country, of western Nebraska, northwest Kansas and eastern Colorado. The folder tells how a man can start in this country with a herd of about twenty cows and with no assets but strong hands and a clear head and become independent in a very few years. It covers thoroughly every county in this region, giving prices of land and lists of land agents from whom definite information can be obtained. This folder should be in the hands of every man who wants to better his condition; who wants to start his son on the road to success and independence, and especially, every renter, who wants to become a land holder. This folder will be sent free on application to everyone writing for same to the Passenger Department of the Burlington Route at Omaha.

U. B. Church.

Sabbath school at 10 a. m. Preaching service 11 a. m., by Rev. S. S. Leonard of Memphis, Neb. All are invited to come and hear him.

To Voters:

The attacks made upon me by the opposition, so far as they reflect upon my character, official or private, are utterly and maliciously false, so condemned at home, regardless of party, recklessly manufactured by their unscrupulous author, who imagines he may derive a benefit by a reduction of my vote. M. P. KINKAID.

Look out for False Circulars.

The custom of the demo-pop press has been, in years past, to attempt to defeat the republican candidates, by publishing their papers and by circulars, after it is too late to answer them through the medium of the press. We have an intimation that such will be their tactics this year. As a matter of fact there is a strenuous effort being put forth by the large ranchmen in certain quarters to defeat Congressman Kinkaid. They first tried to get a republican to be a candidate against him. Failing in that they put up Shumway on the demo-pop ticket. As yet they have not shown their hand in this county, but may, after they think it is too late for a reply to be made.

Another scheme is being premeditated to defeat C. L. Gutterson for county attorney, by charging him with being in favor of saloons.

Wherever such charges are made resent them. They dare not be made in the open.

Judge Gutterson has been a resident of Broken Bow the past twenty years and a more upright citizen has not lived anywhere. Further than that he will see to it that the laws of our state are strictly enforced. He will attend strictly to business. There will be trials no postponed, after he has them set down for trial, because of the county attorney's absence, which has been the case in the past two years, if Judge Gutterson is elected county attorney. Only last week, we are informed, two whiskey cases, one from Anselmo and the other from Sargent, had to go over, after the defendants and witnesses were here, because of the absence of the county attorney. This was not the first case of the kind.

Then there is a strong effort being made to elect a democrat U. S. senator and it will be well to look out for false accusations against Norris Brown or our legislative candidates on the eve of election.

Be not deceived. The republican candidates are worthy of support and if elected will prove true to the trust imposed in them.

For Good Roads as Well as Good Government.

Just at this time, more than ever before, the question of good roads is in the minds of the business men and farmer alike. There is no other one question which should receive the attention of everyone more than this. It is something that every country, every neighborhood and every town should look out for. Wm. Warren, the republican candidate for representative, is an advocate of good roads. He has heard the question broad cast over this country for the past several years, giving papers and talks upon good roads before the farmers meetings. If elected, he will be in a position to do more than talk. He can act—and not only can he, but he will act. If you want a man to represent you in the legislature, who represents your personal interests as well as the country at large vote for Wm. Warren. The good roads question is his hobby, and he will ride it into the legislature for all that is in it. The rural mail carriers, the star mail carriers, the farmers, the stockmen and those who only go out for a ride over the country all realize what good roads would mean to this country, and all should vote alike for the man who would carry the question into our legislative halls. Warren is the man that will do it. —Callaway Queen.

To Old Soldiers.

All soldiers who wish to have the best advice as to pensions should place their claims in the hands of Joseph H. Hunter, Pension Attorney, Washington, D. C., as I personally know that he gives faithful attention to his work. SIMON CAMERON.

A Local Fish Story.

One is told on Robert Skinner, which, in the vernacular of the boys, "isn't so worse." The gentleman in question is not only a fisherman and knows how to fish, but he goes to it on every occasion that presents itself and sticks to it with the patience of Job and the persistence of a porous plaster. One afternoon—a hot, sultry one—he was discovered on the creek bank, intently watching a cork which occasionally wobbled by an undercurrent and fighting bull gnats while the perspiration stood in beads and rolled from his face.

Coming up to him one of the fellows asked:

"How long you be here, Bob?"

"Since this mornin'."

"What kind o' luck yer having?"

"Oh, not very good."

"Well how many fish yer caught?"

At this time the undercurrent whirled the cork around again and Bob answered:

"Well, when I get this one that's been nibblin' for the last three hours and another one" I'll have two."

They came on to town without seeking more information but found it late that evening when they saw Skinner making for home carrying a fish pole, woe-begone look and nary a fish.

Under Republican Administration

Our manufactures have doubled since 1896.

Our farm values and crop values have doubled since 1896.

Employment and wages have raised from 50 to 100 per cent since 1896.

A thousand million dollars have been added to our saving banks since 1896.

And failures, in spite of the enormous increase in business have fallen off more than half as compared with 1896.

Trains Change Time.

A new time schedule went into effect last Sunday and the time of all trains was changed, except Nos. 39 and 40, the local passenger between Broken Bow and Lincoln. There wasn't much change, but the enough to leave you unless the train is behind time—which is usually the case. The time at Broken Bow under the new schedule is as follows:

WEST BOUND.
No. 39 local passenger, ex. Sunday, ar. 6:20 p m
41 coast passenger, daily, leave..... 6:58 a m
43 coast passenger, daily, leave..... 12:14 a m
47 local freight, arrive..... 3:10 p m
EAST BOUND.
No. 40 local passenger, leave..... 6:20 a m
42 coast passenger, leave..... 10:58 a m
44 coast passenger, leave..... 12:14 a m
48 local freight, arrive..... 2:10 p m

It will, by this, be noticed that Nos. 43 and 44 are scheduled to meet here at 12:14—midnight.

Automobiliousness.

Uncle Sam is wealthy, but he finds that it takes a surprising amount of money to support an automobile. The officials of the Treasury department at Washington, gasped last week when they looked over the report of the Collector of Customs at San Francisco and found that it cost $1,280 to run the official auto during the last six months, or about $8 for each business day. In addition, a $1400 clerk has been installed as chauffeur. The collector in his report acknowledges that the automobile is expensive, but he asserts it is not a luxury but absolute necessity, taking into consideration the condition of the city.
